Website: A big thank you to Victoria who recently uploaded our new website. She has designed it from scratch by herself and I think you will agree that she has done a fantastic job. This website will also be easier to access and maintain than the last one. Thank you also to Danielle Chadwick and Esther Knowles for taking some new photos for us. I draw your attention to the "Useful Links" page which contains among other things many short videos from Ascension Press on questions you might have about the Christian life.

Help protect babies with cleft lip, cleft palate and club foot: Sadly abortion is currently available in the UK, right up to birth, for babies with cleft lip, cleft palate and club foot. All of these conditions can be corrected. A cross-party group of MPs from the three largest parties in the UK Parliament have come together to bring forward the Abortion (Cleft lip, cleft palate and club foot) Bill. The Bill will change the law to clarify that cleft palate, cleft lip, and club foot are not grounds for abortion in the UK. Can you help with getting your MP to support the Bill? Please visit www.standupandsmile.org.uk to email your MP asking them to support the Bill.

Sunday 22nd November 2020 – Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King - the last Sunday before Advent - which brings the Catholic liturgical year to an end. (And what a year it has been since last Advent!) I don't know if you have noticed but for the last three Sundays of the year the Church has given us gospel readings taken from the twenty-fifth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew. These three gospel readings are focused on the end of all things when Christ will return to judge the living and the dead. The liturgical year ends with thoughts of the end times. Each of the three gospel texts is designed to "disturb" us just a little so as to make sure that we ready ourselves to stand before the Lord. The Church teaches that there is a particular judgment of every human soul at the moment of death when one's eternal destiny is already fixed. I mentioned this individual judgment in last weekend's newsletter. Then there will be a general or universal judgment at the end of time after Christ has returned to judge the world. This will be a collective judgment which will serve as God's last word on the drama of human history and through which all things will be finally set aright. Each of us will be shown the entire ripple effect that our life has had upon others - for good or for ill - effects which continue long after our death. These effects will be clear for all to see and will bring great joy to those who have done good.

These three final gospel readings of the year teach us three different secrets about what we must do in order to be ready for judgment. The Word of God is preparing us for the final test through which we must pass to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. (Whenever we have to sit some difficult exam we are always grateful to have a few tips about what to expect. Well, in these three gospels Jesus gives us the three great tips.) On the 32nd Sunday of the year we read the gospel of the ten virgins which reminds us of the need to keep the light of God's grace alive in our souls. It will be too late to try to return to a state of grace once we have left this world, so we must do all we can in advance. Then came the gospel of the talents on the 33rd Sunday of the year which reminds us of the obligation to use our gifts and graces to glorify God and help our neighbour. Finally, in this weekend's gospel, Christ the King gives us a glimpse of the general judgment and shows us that we will be judged also based upon how we have cared or failed to care for those in need. If we make concrete efforts to live according to these three essential teachings of Jesus - the only One who knows what the final "exam" will be based upon - the end will really be just the beginning, as we hear those glorious words from today's gospel, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed..."

May God bless and protect you all.
Fr Sean

New Parish Email: Please note that we have a new parish email address: stchadsheadle@gmail.com and this will be used from now on. The emails will be checked on a daily basis. The old email account will remain active for a few months and will be checked regularly, so don't worry if you send something there.
