Sunday 14th - 4th Sunday of Lent Year B

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last Sunday I mentioned the right to life of the unborn. Sadly, according to the statistics provider "Worldometers.info" there were 42.6 million abortions carried out in the world in 2020, dwarfing the number of deaths from cancer (8.2 million), Covid19 (1.8 million) and road traffic accidents (1.4 million). To put this horrifying figure in perspective, there were about 20 million deaths during the entire First World War. In pondering these statistics, I am reminded of the words of Pope Francis, "Every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world's rejection." The life of all the people we know and love began at the moment of their conception, when their DNA was already present. The genetic information for their unique personal characteristics was there from the very start. Even the staunch atheist, Christopher Hitchens, was honest enough to admit this truth as he famously became pro-life after watching a sonogram. To watch the development of a baby in the womb using 4D ultrasound technology is to watch the unfolding of the amazingly beautiful miracle of life.

We will never know what might have been the contribution to society of those little ones (the word foetus comes from the Latin for "little one") who were snatched from life last year. The footballer Cristiano Ronaldo almost became the victim of a home abortion which his mother tried to perform because of poverty, but he somehow survived the attempt on his life. The world might never have witnessed his dazzling skills. (Ronaldo once quipped about the irony of this story, since he now pays all her bills.) Andrea Bocelli also revealed that his mother was advised by a doctor to take his life while in the womb because of a foetal anomaly, but thankfully, she refused to accept the opinion that the life of her child was worthless. The life of the singer Cher was also almost extinguished before the moment of her birth. In a similar scenario to that of the musician Nick Cannon - who told his own teenage mother's story in the song entitled, Can I Live? - Cher's mother went as far as the abortion clinic but turned back. Last year, the Catholic News Agency (CNA) revealed that Pope John Paul II's mother was advised by her doctor to abort him because of a severe danger to her health. The courageous woman decided to find a new doctor! What a tragedy it would have been if one of the most important popes in history had never been permitted to see the light of day.

I encourage you to look up the video of Andrea Bocelli expressing his hope that pregnant women in crisis will make the same brave choice that his mother made. Abortion threatens the life of real people like Andrea and like each one of us. We cannot play God and decide who lives or dies. Once the conception of an immortal human spirit has occurred nobody has the right to try to turn back time and eradicate the little one from history. The Gospel shows that Jesus and John the Baptist were already living members of human history while still in the womb. It was God's plan from all eternity to sanctify the unborn John through the presence of the unborn Jesus. Biblical prophets also spoke of God relating to us in the womb of our mothers. To those people who think that prenatal diagnosis should be used not simply as a means of trying to bring healing to the unborn, but rather as an instrument of eugenics, I would say: "If ever you have the joy of attending an Andrea Bocelli concert; when you see those around you moved to tears as he sings his Time To Say Goodbye, try convincing them that his life wasn't worth living..."

May God bless you all.
Fr. Sean
