In the Catholic Church, the Cardinals are appointed by the Pope for life, to advise the Pope in matters of the Church when he summons an ordinary council. They are formally called the Sacred College of Cardinals. There are 222 Cardinals, of whom, 121 are eligible to vote in a conclave to elect a new Pope. Basileous Cardinal Cleemis is one of those who has the power to vote. He is the current Major Archbishop-Catholicos of the Syrian Malankara Catholic Church, one of the Eastern Rite churches in full communion with the Catholic Church. He was named one of the College of Cardinals of the Catholic Church by Pope Benedict XVI on 24 November 2012.

The Catholic Church is the communion of different individual churches having their own Liturgy, Spirituality, Tradition, Hierarchy and Patrimony. At present there are 23 Eastern Autonomous Particular Churches which are in full communion with the Pope in Rome just as Roman Catholics are. The Syro- Malankara Catholic Church is one of the Eastern Rite Churches in full communion with the Pope. The Head of the Church according to the tradition of the Church is referenced as Catholicos and he is addressed as His Beatitude/ His Eminence.

His Beatitude Basileous Cardinal Cleemis is at present the Major- Archbishop Catholicos of the Syrian Malankara Catholic Church, residing in the Major Arch-Bishop's House, Pattom Trivandrum in the Capital City of Kerala. He is the Cardinal Priest of the Church of Saint Gregory VII in Rome, a Member of the Congregation of the Oriental Churches in Rome, a Member of the Pontifical Council for Inter-Religious Dialogue in Rome, a Member of the National Integration Council of the Prime Minister of India, a Former President of the Catholic Bishop's Conference of India, and at present the President of the Regional Catholic Bishop's Conference. Your Beatitude, A Cordial and Big Welcome to Cheadle.

He has chosen as his topic: 'A Church for our time'. He is not going to focus on the Catholic church, but he'll consider the Christian Church in its broadest sense. Fr John says "A recent survey has shown that the UK 's population is one of the least likely to believe in God. How relevant has the Church been in our lifetime; is it relevant today? Does it use a language that the people of today understand? After the coronation ceremony of Charles III many interesting questions have been raised. So, let's consider what is the place of the Church in today's society?" All welcome.

We will pray the Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood at the end of Sunday Mass: Eternal Father, We thank you for every priest who has faithfully given his life for the salvation of his brothers and sisters. We give thanks to those priests who have brought us your Word of truth, the grace of the Sacraments and, above all, the supreme gift of the Holy Eucharist. Father through your Son Jesus Christ, who called the Apostles to follow him, we ask you to raise up new and generous vocations to the priesthood in our time. Send forth the Holy Spirit to open the hearts of a new generation to your call and enable them not to be afraid, but to recognise the joy of giving their whole lives in love. Through Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen
